

Woytek Mrozek – Artistic Name Woy Frostman

'... since 1992 Mr. Mrozek has collaborated with the Yehudi Menuhin Live Music Now (LMN), giving many concerts. What characterizes his play is an excellent technique, remarkable musical intelligence, warm sound, as well as spontaneity and emotionalism. He has performed twice at the renowned Prinzregententheater in Munich in official concerts in the presence of Lord Yehudi Menuhin and Professor August Everding. I strongly recommend Mr. Mrozek to all colleagues, impresarios and sponsors, not only for his outstanding qualifications but also because of his autyentic and agreeable manner “.

(Yehudi Menuhin , Munich 10 March 1997)

“... The performance by the clarinetist Woytek Mrozek was most fascinating. He is quite well known Bavaria He has matured into a much sought-after virtuoso of an international format. In Music Festival in Iffeldorf - Germany he presented himself as an excellent chamber musician and charismatic soloist with a fantastic sound and wide spectrum of expression”.

(Süddeutsche Zeitung, Munich 22 June 1998)

One of the most eminent contemporary clarinetist, consistently going beyond the traditional attitude towards the musician's profession – the instrumentalist extending the range of his creative activity almost every month.

The artist, famous for unconventional ideas and unrestrained imagination, continuously looks for new means of expression. With characteristic dynamics, he goes beyond conventions that divide music into popular and elitist music; in his amazing projects he combines the roles as an all-round instrumentalist, composer, arranger and conductor.

He commenced clarinet at age 15 and, from the age of 17, began concertising with the Pomeranian Philharmony Orchestra. He studied in the Warsaw Music Academy, after completion of which, continued learning in Master Classes in Munich Hochschule für Musik.

He was the winner of the prestigious International Clarinet Competition, in Poznan, and the First Prize at the Interacademic Clarinet Competition in Munich - Geramany. The German Federal Government, awarded him a bursary for 2 years' study, and the Yamaha Foundation for remarkably talented artists gave him a scholarship.

Since 1998, Mr. Mrozek has been associated with the record producers KOCH International München. In November 1999 Mrozek playd concert in the National Theater in Warsaw with the Violin Virtuoso - Niggel Kennedy.

Since 2003, he has been the artistic director of the International Music Festival in Sandomierz, where in 2007 he was granted the title of eminence – “The Honorary Citizen and Patron of Culture of Sandomierz Land” for his actions aimed at propagation of culture and for his composition of the Grand Paps Mass - in 15 Movements for John Paul II, commissioned by the Polish Government, to commemorate 1000 years of the Polish Catholic Church – “Missa Solemnis Sandomiriensis – Beati Mundo Corde” (“Blessed Are the Pure in Heart”).
